in the North. Without that, they and their cause will surely perish. Hence, we see that just as the rubel prospects grow more threatening, Copperhead anxiety grows more and more intense, and Copperhead endeavor boider and boider. The recent meeting of the Knights of the Golden Circle, in this city, was unquestionably a spaemodic endeavor to raise the falling fortunes of the pirates Confederacy the future of which the raid of Morgan and the fall of Victaburg foreshadows.

its Springfield rifled, muskets and its Parrott guns, and the ill-trained, ill-fed, illarmed, umpaid, though not cowardly, regiments of Mexico. We do not seek this quarrel, but, as the Roman Gensor conchate Carthage must be destroyed, so do we keep ever in mind that foreign despots must be expelled from our neighborhood we hat as they thrust themselves upon us.
And we believe that if the American people can be united as one man upon any lasue, it is upon this. We have colored troops enough under arms at this moment to make prisoners of Gen. Forey and all his followers, and his Lecompton convention to boot; we have an army which can possess itself of every Frageh island in the West Indies twenty days after a declarapossess itself of every French Island in the West Indies twenty days after a decisaration of war; and we have an excellent atomach for the fight. The only question that remains is this: Is this the time to begin? As soon as it shall be seen that Tecomptonism in Mexico has any connection with accession at home, that question is answered, and the ball will open.

The meeting of the Knights of the Golden Circle, in this city, on the 4th—an event of which we were advised by a rependant Copperhead in Indiana, at least tendays ago—was so protoundly secret that the public can know nothing of what was done. In view of the recent victories and the generally forlors condition of the re-bel cause; and in view also of the re-aminated loyalty of the North, and of the ill-success of the late opposition to the Draft, the of the expectations that he was vector detroyed. The meeting is believed to have been one of delegates from the counties in litinois in which lodges exist. Of its pur-poses we know little, actually, except as we can gather them from the notoriously disloyal character of those in attendance.

A great change for the better has taken piece in public feeling in the State. The boid Union-loving men are more determined than ever, and the timid have taken heart.
